It's a sound experience based on a virtual conversation.
Each run, the viewer gets the choice of the next answer or the next question.
So (s)he creates his(er) own narrative path. Everytime, the viewer makes a choice, the conversation sample linked to this choice is played.

start

We start here. The viewer clicks on start as (s)he's attracted to do so.

Palette:

Evertime a sample plays,
the Fourier transform of this sample shows on top/bottom of the screen.

After clicking on start, a field of possibilities unfolds. And cells begin to orbit around the selected word. The lighter words are the next possibilities.
The darker words might be reached eventually according to the viewer's choices. The viewer can hover the mouse over the potential answers to ear a glimpse of the next possible answers.
